

GREENBACKER RENEWABLE ENERGY COMPANY BREAKS ESCROW

New York, NY. GREENBACKER RENEWABLE ENERGY COMPANY, LLC, (“Greenbacker”) a publicly registered, non-traded, energy company announced today that it has raised proceeds sufficient to break escrow and has raised sufficient offering proceeds of more than $2 million in aggregate. While Greenbacker’s initial investment has not been identified, the company is currently conducting due diligence on several assets that may be appropriate investments for the company. New stockholders will continue to be admitted on a daily basis. Greenbacker now accepts stockholders residing in 42 of the 50 states plus a number of territories. As outlined in its prospectus, investors in the remaining states will be admitted when Greenbacker has satisfied any special requirements outlined by those particular states. Shares sold in the offering will be made available through SC Distributors, LLC, a FINRA and SIPC member and the dealer manager to the offering.

ABOUT GREENBACKER RENEWABLE ENERGY COMPANY

Greenbacker is a non-traded, publicly-offered and externally-managed Limited Liability Corporation focused on acquiring and monitoring a diversified portfolio of income-producing renewable energy power plants, energy efficiency projects and sustainable development investments. The company may also finance the construction and/or operation of these projects and businesses. Greenbacker has also established a strategic partnership with GGIC, wherein GGIC will assist Greenbacker in identifying and evaluating investment opportunities and monitoring those investments over time. GGIC’s management firm has developed, invested in, and managed power and utility projects in the U.S., Asia and Latin America and has over $30 billion of power and infrastructure transaction experience worldwide.

This is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy the securities described herein. An offering is made only by a prospectus to individuals who meet minimum suitability requirements. This sales literature must be read in conjunction with a prospectus in order to understand fully all the implications and risks of the offering of securities to which it relates. A copy of the prospectus must be made available to you in connection with the offering described herein. Neither the Attorney General of the state of New York, nor any other state regulators, have passed on or endorsed the merits of this offering. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful.

Click these links to view the prospectus and risk factors.

RISK FACTORS

There is no guarantee that Greenbacker Renewable Energy Company’s (“Greenbacker’s”) investment strategy will be successful. Investment in a non-listed LLC like Greenbacker involves significant risks including but not limited to: no secondary market; limitation on liquidity, transfer and redemption of units; distributions made may not come from income, are not guaranteed and are subject to board discretion; investors may lose their entire investment; Greenbacker is dependent upon its advisor to select investments and conduct operations; and Greenbacker’s advisor will face conflicts of interest. Greenbacker is not suitable for all investors. This investment relies, in part, on federal and state incentives currently in place to support the renewable energy industry. These incentives may be discontinued, reduced, or otherwise adversely modified in the future which may ultimately adversely affect investors’ returns.

Greenbacker carries significant fees and charges that will have an impact on investment returns. Information provided by Greenbacker Capital Management, LLC. This is a speculative security and, as such, involves a high degree of risk. Investments are not bank guaranteed, not FDIC insured and may lose value or total value. Securities offered through SC Distributors, LLC, an affiliated dealer manager and member of FINRA and SIPC.